

Schedule 'Politics of Knowledge'

All panels will take place in A233.

FRIDAY 22

12.30

Opening

13.00

KEY-NOTE

Sharon Rider: Occupy Bildung!

15.00 Coffe

15.30

Panel 1: Knowledge, Bildung, Education: truth in the public sphere

Johan Söderberg:

Den sociologiska visionen i post-sanningens tidevarv

Asger Sørensen:

Bildung as Democratic Opinion and Will Formation. Habermas beyond Habermas.

Tomas Wedin:

Educational Equality: A Politico-Temporal Approach

Leo Berglund:

The Politics of Critical Education: an Analysis of the Critic as a Pedagogical Product

18.30 DINNER

SATURDAY 23

09.30

KEY-NOTE

Kristoffer Kropp: Why we need Historical Sociological Analyses of the Social Sciences and How it can be Done

11.00

Panel 2: Knowledge circulation

Johan Östling:

Circulating Knowledge in Society: Postwar Examples and Contemporary Challenges

Linnea Bring Larsson:

The Swedish State, Jacob Serenius, and English Books on Husbandry: The Complex Tale of Agricultural Knowledge Circulation in the Beginning of 18th Century Europe

12.00 Lunch served in the lunch room

13.30

Panel 3: Theory and history at the intersection

Karolina Enquist Källgren:

The Public and the Social form: Two Concepts to Explain the Medium of Circulation in Historic Knowledge Circulation

Carl-Göran Heidegren:

Alienation. Old and new Approaches

Anders Ramsay:

Marx in the cold war. Hannah Arendt's book that could not be Written

Øjvind Larsen:

Property, Legitimate Political Governance, Religious Hegemony and the Expansion of Capitalism – Max Weber's Religious Sociological Perspective on the Forms of Understanding Economy

15.30 Coffee break

16.00

Panel 4: History of the Public Sphere

Haakon Bekeng-Flemmen:

When truth hurts: Offence and freedom of speech in the Norwegian blasphemy controversy 1932–1934

Victor Pressfeldt:

Radical neoliberalism in Sweden: How the neoliberal thought collective inspired the restructuring of the “Swedish Model”

18.30

DINNER

SUNDAY 24

10.00

Panel 4: Populism and deplorables

Joaquín Valdivielso:

Populism, Critique and Democracy. The Rise and Fall of the Populist Hypothesis in Podemos’ evolution.

Tómas Gabriel Benjamin:

The Rise of the Deplorables

Peter Aagard:

Disruption of Democracy: The datafication of Issue Networks

11.30

Closure and information (NSU, Seminar of the History of Knowledge)